the lakeside

numidian

chool's fiftieth year

He is a man of honesty and frankness, foresight and precision. He is a man of great thoughtfulness and sincerity. He is a man who has devoted seventeen years to the leadership and development of our school. He is a man to whom we all owe much. For his calm, for his dignity, for his understanding, for his fairness, we, The Class of 1969, proudly dedicate Lakeside's Fiftieth Anniversary Numidian to Mr. Dexter K. Strong.

THE SENIORS

GEORGE BARTELL

Soft spoken guardian of the Senior Class minutes and aspiring drugstore magnate.

STEPHEN BEAN

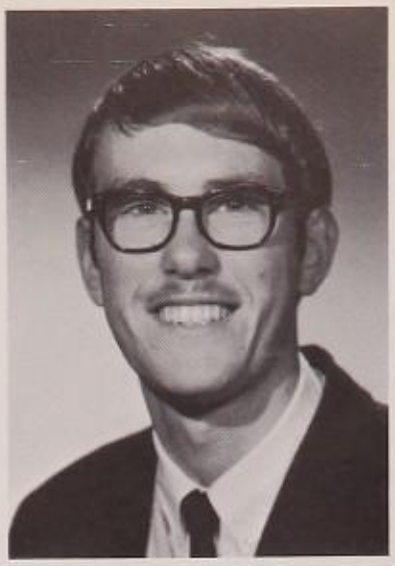
Known for his Tatler sports column, Numidian business management, and future as a rival drugstore entrepreneur.

DAVID BARTON

Past master of subtle comment and concerned helper of both faculty and administration.

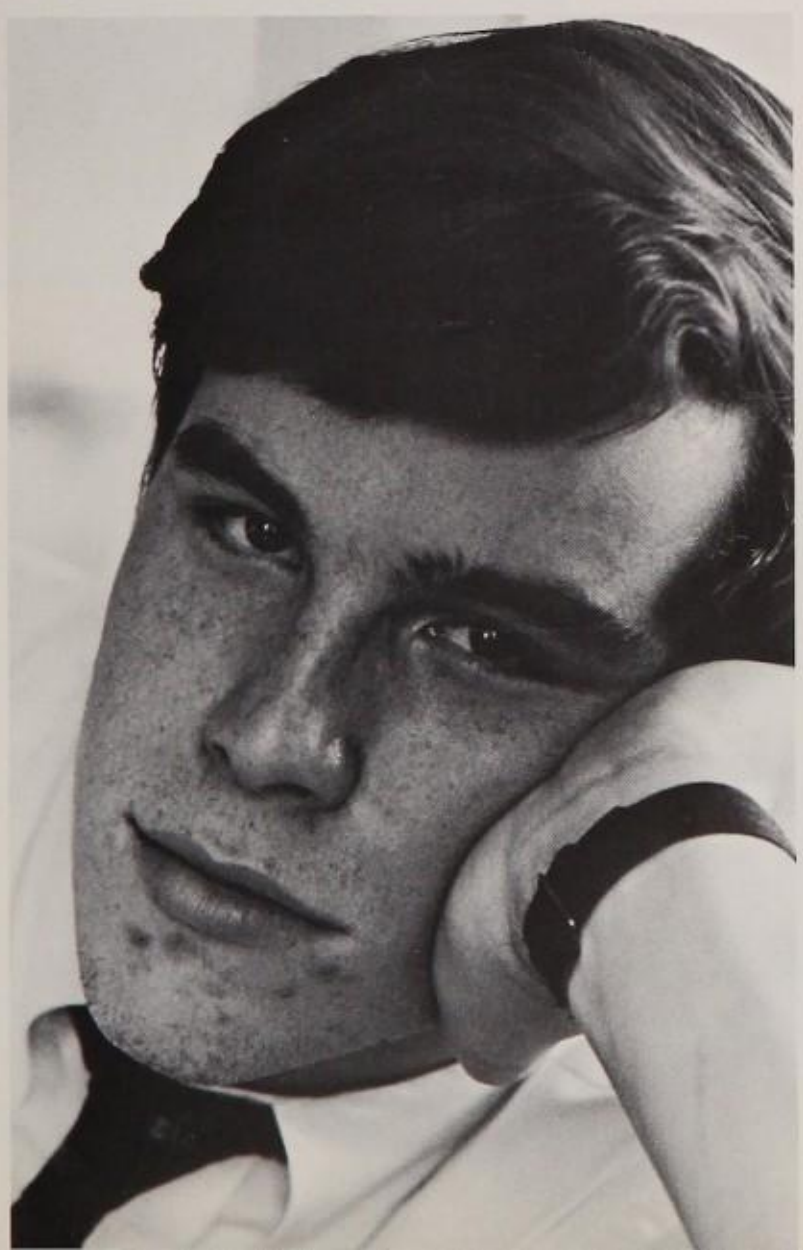
PAUL BELCH

The Senior Class renaissance man with an affinity for chemical engineering and naval salvage.



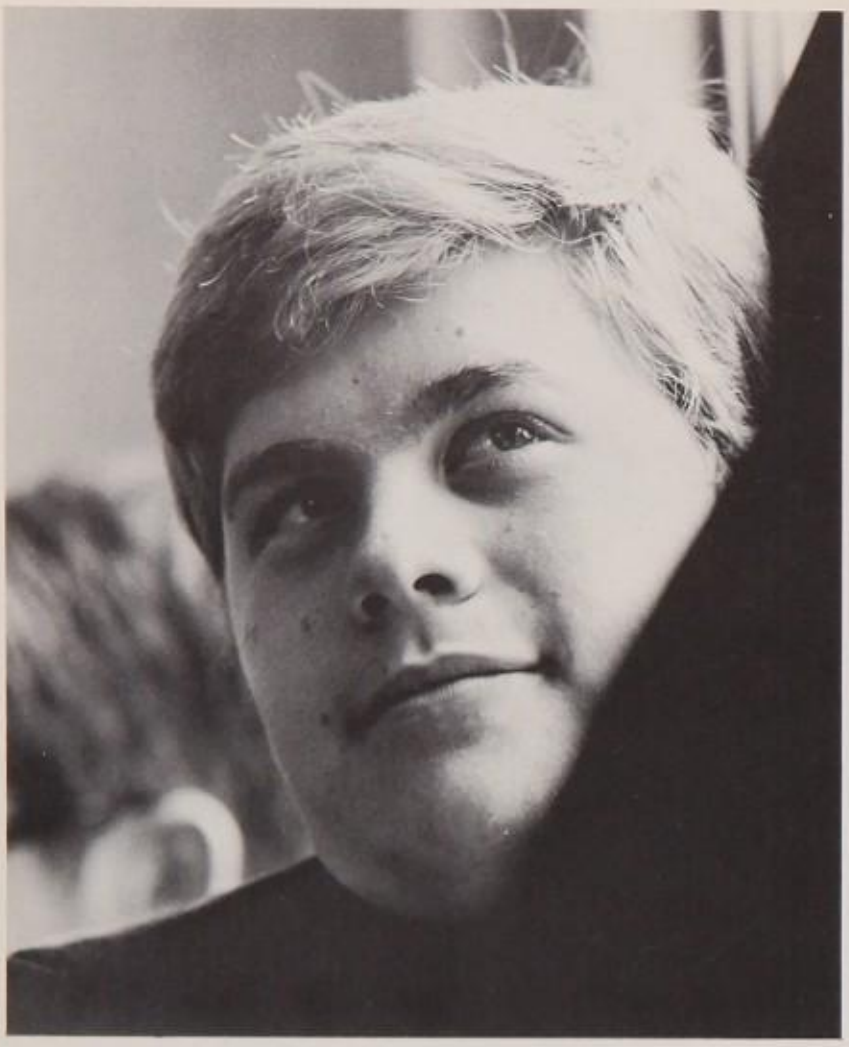
JOHN BIDDLE

Charging demon of the gridiron, returned to us from a year's leave of absence on the eastern seaboard.



BUSTER BLETHEN

Part-time photographer, dealer in used cars, and champion of open campus.



JOHN BONICA

Italy's answer to Howdy Doody.

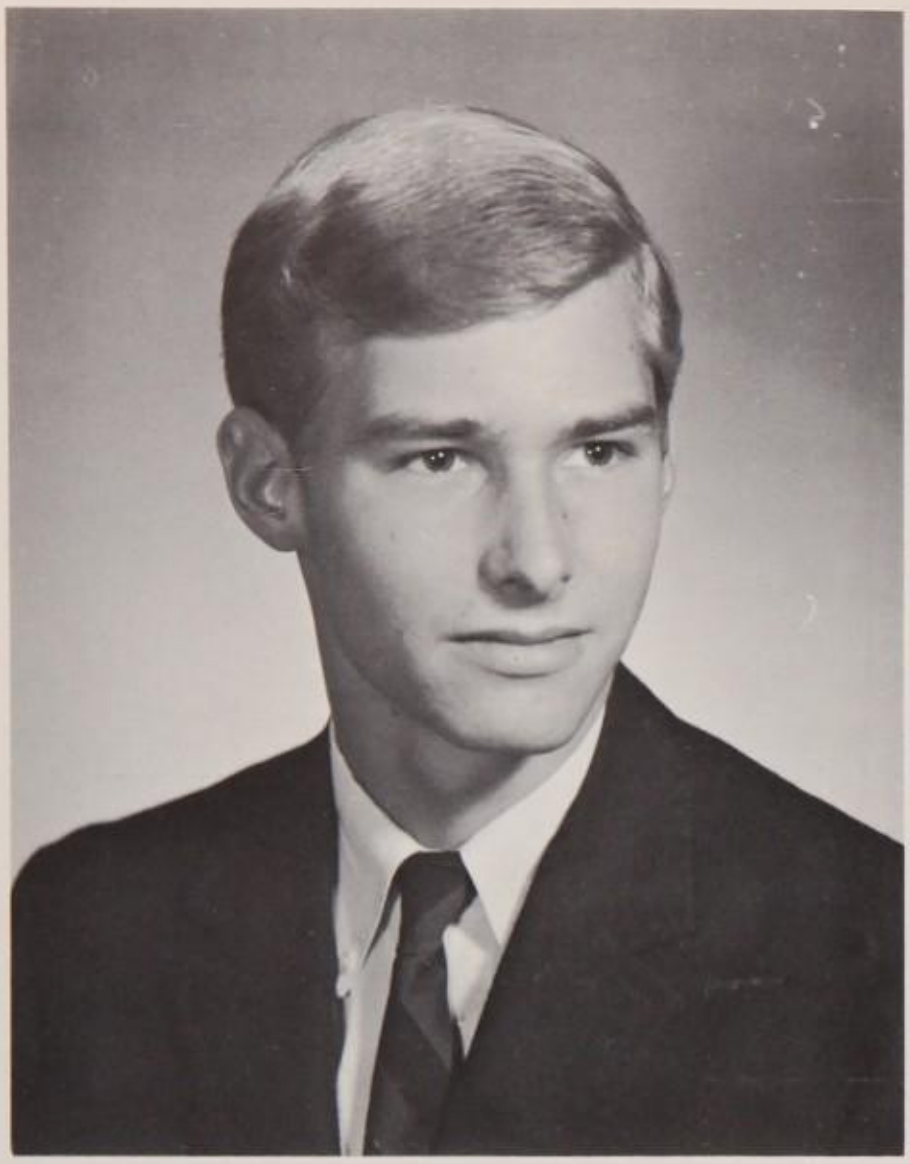
Our own clarinet, guitar, and ocarina virtuoso that plays Cum Laude in his spare moments.

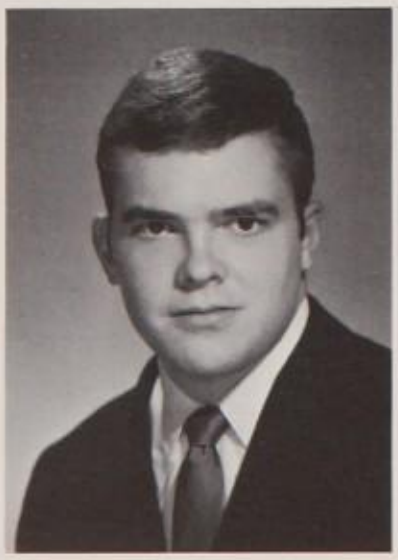


JON DOUGALL

Master of the art of interception and dauntless Sergeant at Arms of The Lakeside Volkswagon Club.

FREDERICK DANZ

The cross country man that ran off to Sweden before we could get a picture of him.



JAMES EDSTAM

Refugee from Mount Si High, programmed for math and a guest appearance with Lawrence Welk after two splendid seasons with the Brass Choir.

GEORGE FLETCHER

Consummate artist of cigar smoking and permanent resident of the feared Senior Circle.

MATTHEW GRIFFIN

Known for the Pledge of Allegiance, suspenders, and origin of the "no funny business" study hall atmosphere.

NED HAZEN

The person responsible for the Tatler's phallacies.

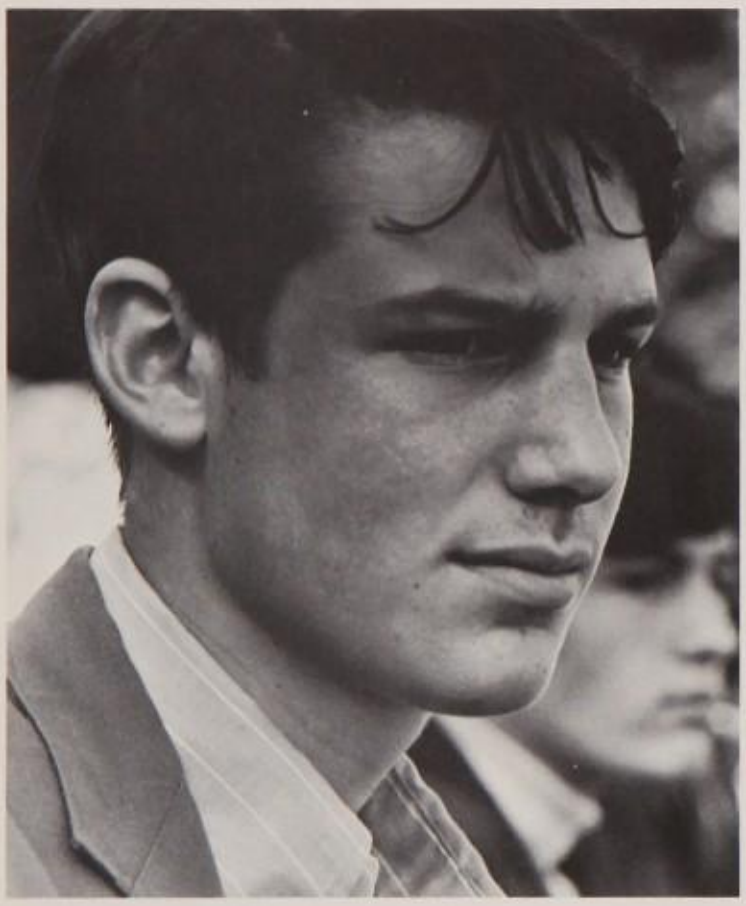
THOMAS HEMPHILL

Soft spoken origin of the Lakeside point after touchdown.



GRANT HILL

One of the few people to finally dribble out of the physics-functions block and still maintain sanity.

BRUCE HINCKLEY

Snow Mass Bruce, known for his artistic talent, and slaving for many hours over a hot Numidian.

JIM HOLMAN

Self-appointed co-captain of the Water Polo team with an affinity for driving around with a ski rack in mid July.

SCOT MERRICK

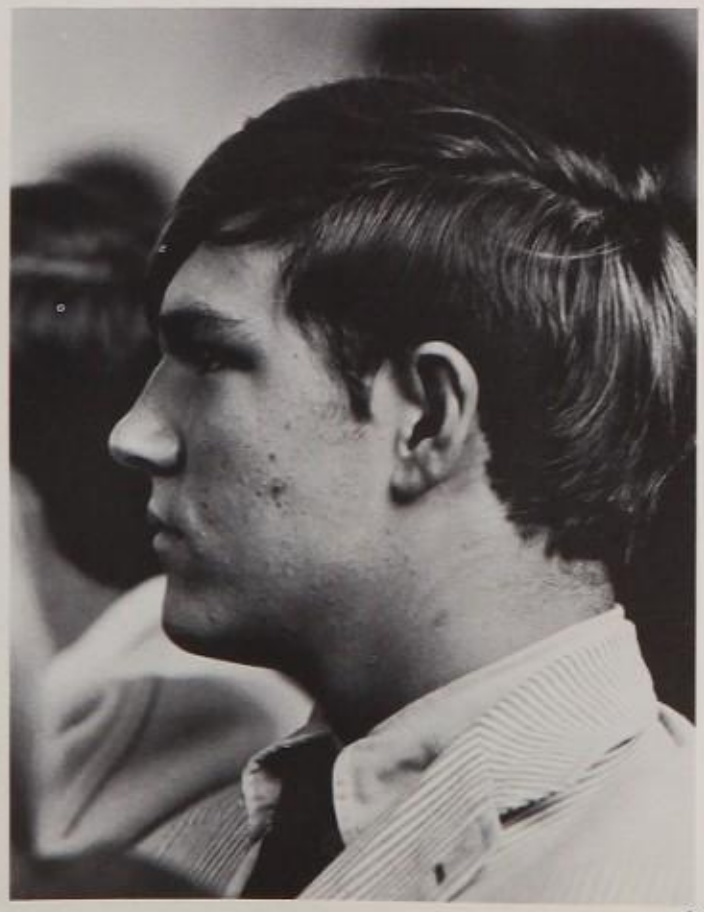
Football's living end, and stroke of genius for the crew.

MICHAEL MILLER

Clean-cut Lakesider or Dirty Pierre? Would the real Mike Miller please stand up?

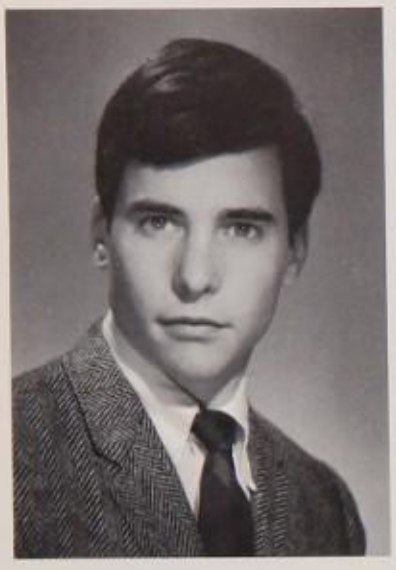
EDWARD MORGAN

E. G., promising impersonator of seagulls who hopes to become doctor of animal noises at the Colman Ferry Terminal.



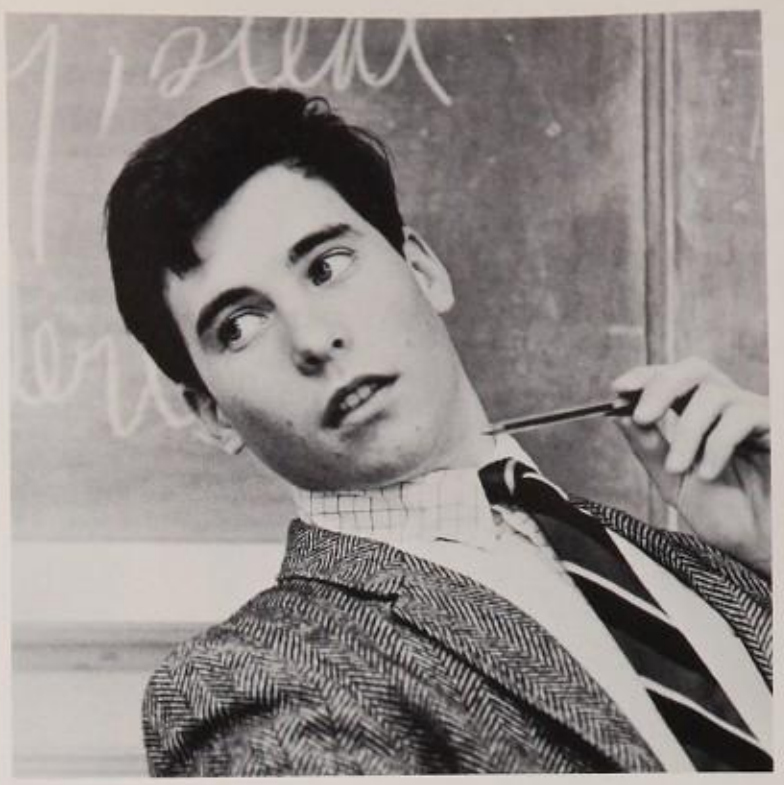
HANK ODLAND

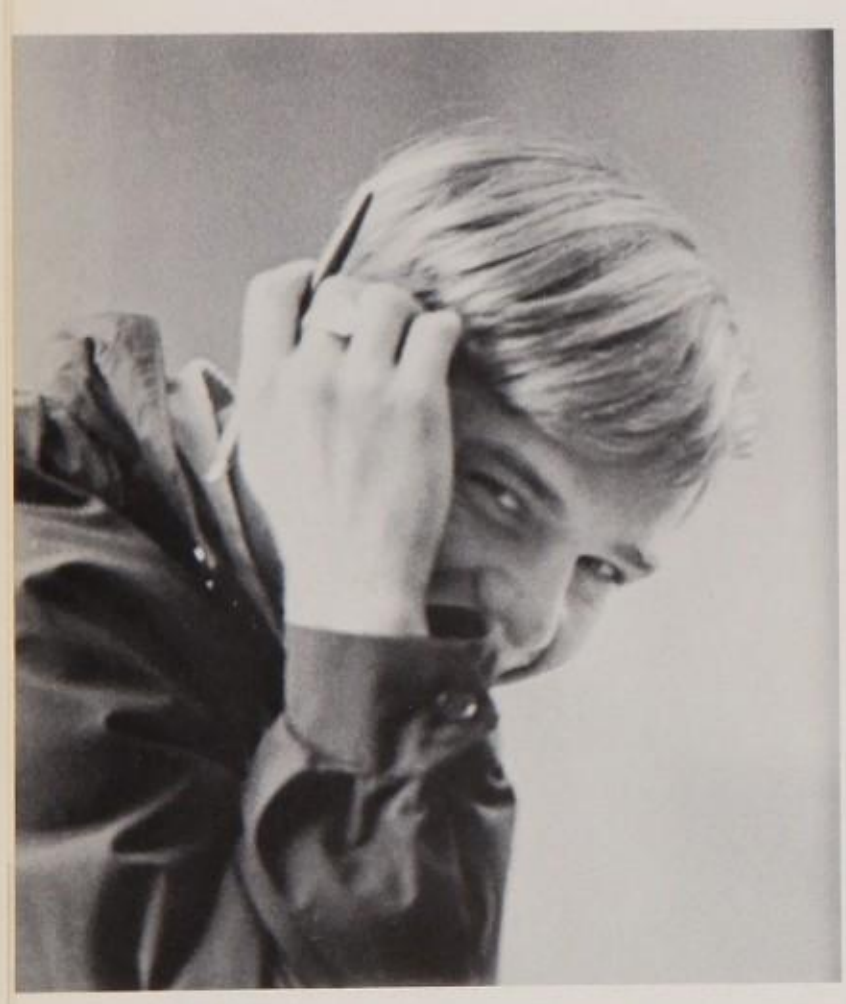
Football's affable brewmaster.



DICK PATTISON

Water, mud, or snow, cross country he will go . . . Dickie



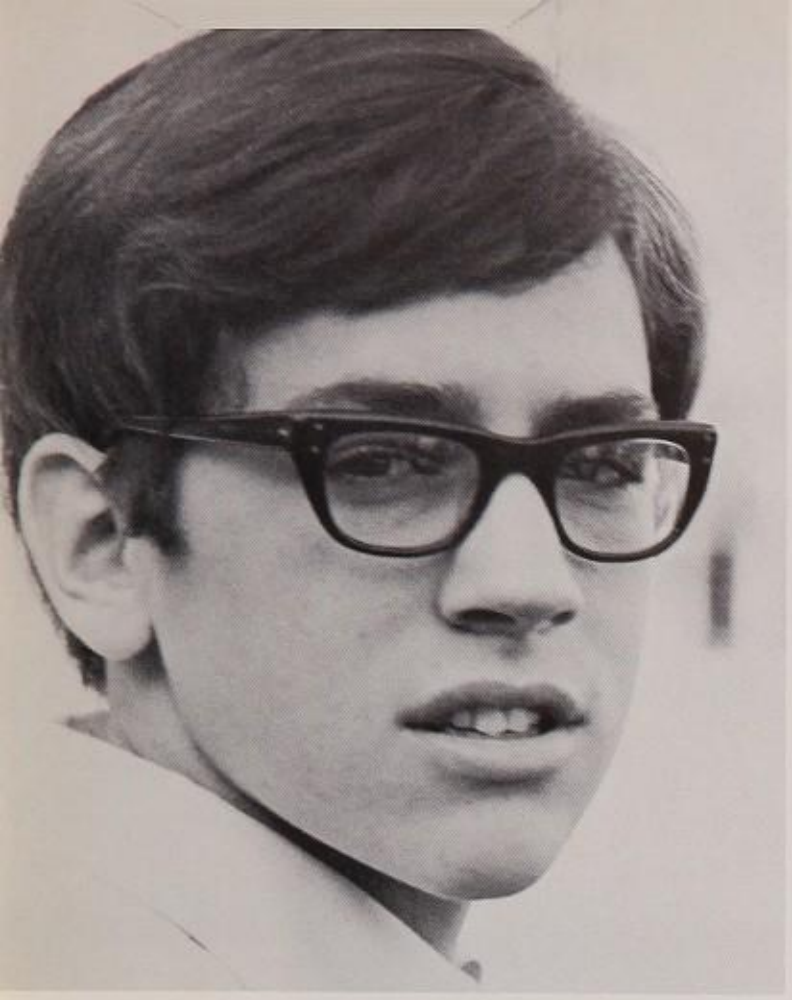


STAN PATTY

Eager advocate of school reform and budding journalist with photographic tendencies.

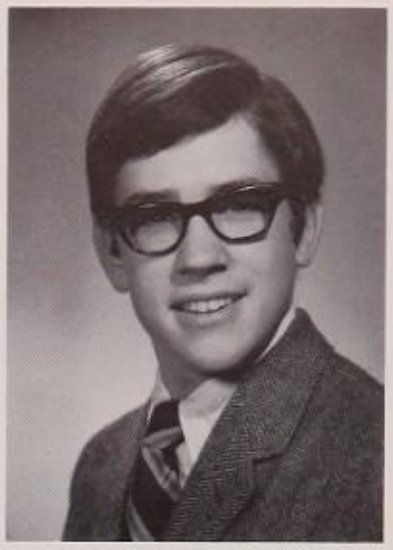
STEWART PHELPS

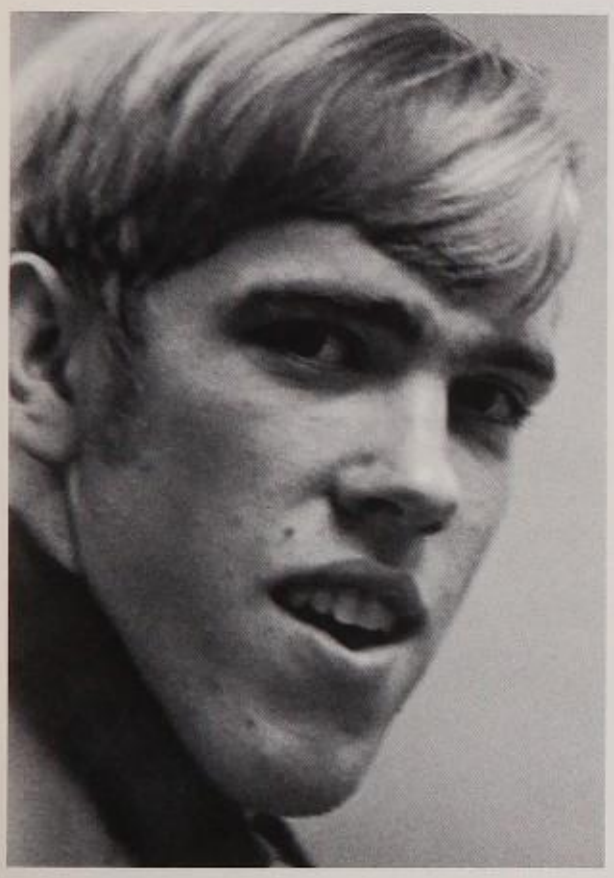
Tatler ad man, frequenter of darkrooms, and newcomer to the "plant".



BRIAN PHILLIPS

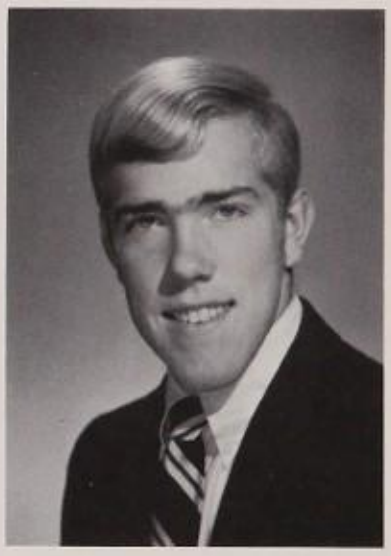
Mr. Numidian layout, and the only person who can make a social event out of a swim meet.

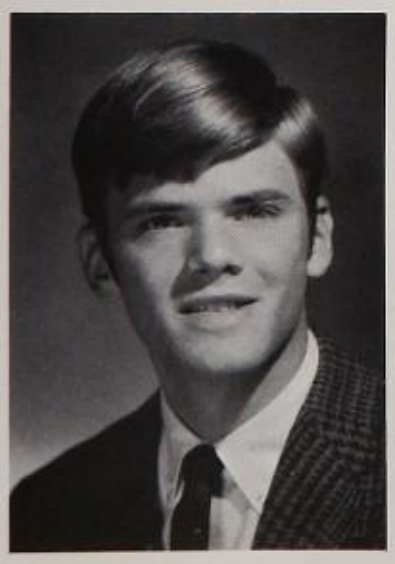




CHARLES REYNOLDS

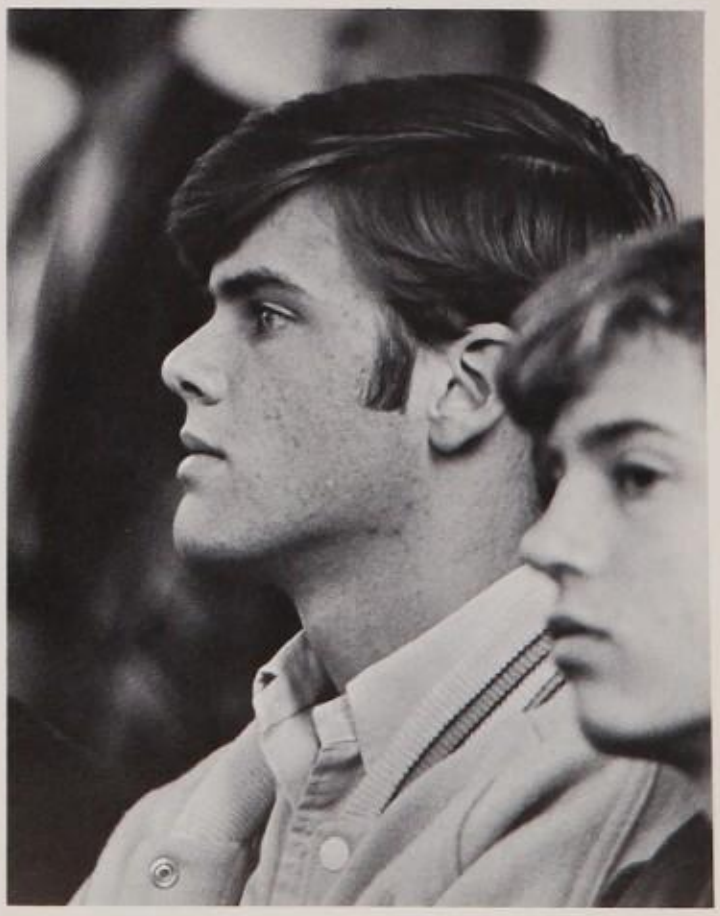
The football playing harmonica stylist, from the rolling hills of Laurelhurst.

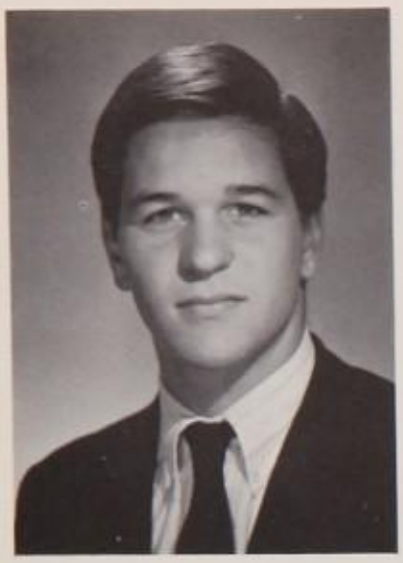




DONALD ROOKS

Big D. R., known for his athletic prowess and architectural dexterity.



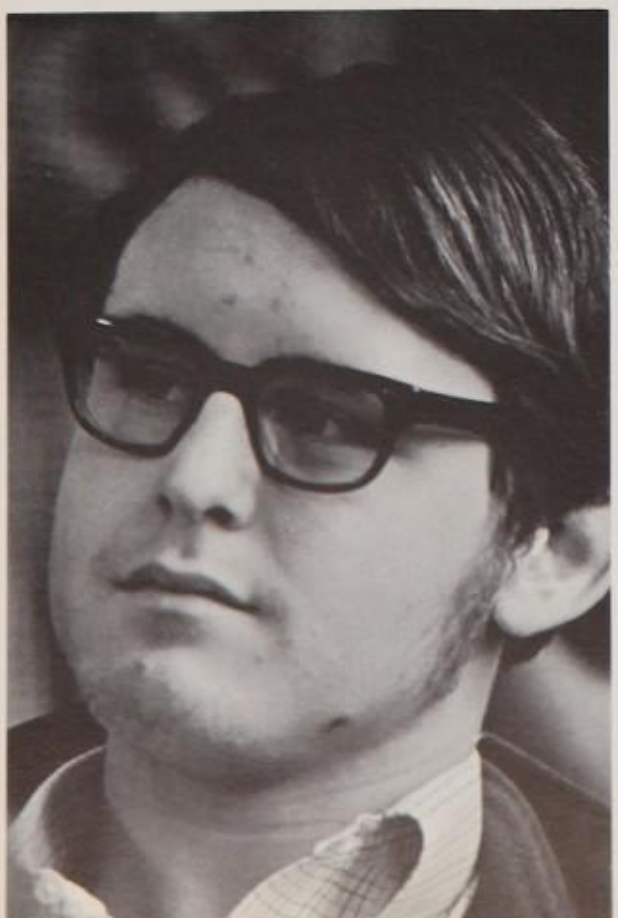


DALE SHERROW

Mr. Senior Class Spirit, returned to us from a year's absence studying in the East (Bellevue).

NAUM SISKOS

The quiet track star from the land of the Acropolis.

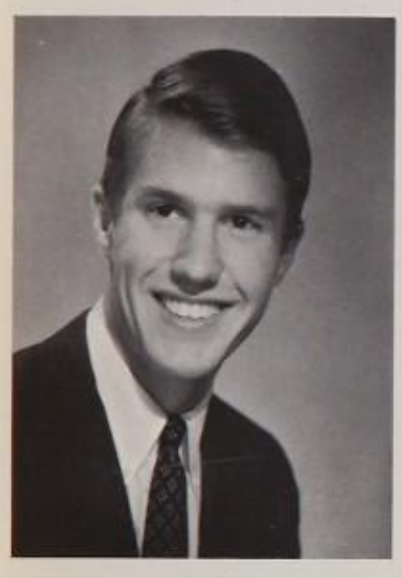


KRISS SJOBLOM

King Kriss, the gifted Tatler columnist and would-be reactionary, with the fastest pearly white aspirator this side of 145th.

MIKE SKALLEY

Super manager and weatherman all rolled up into one big occluded low pressure area.



CLYDE SUMMERVILLE

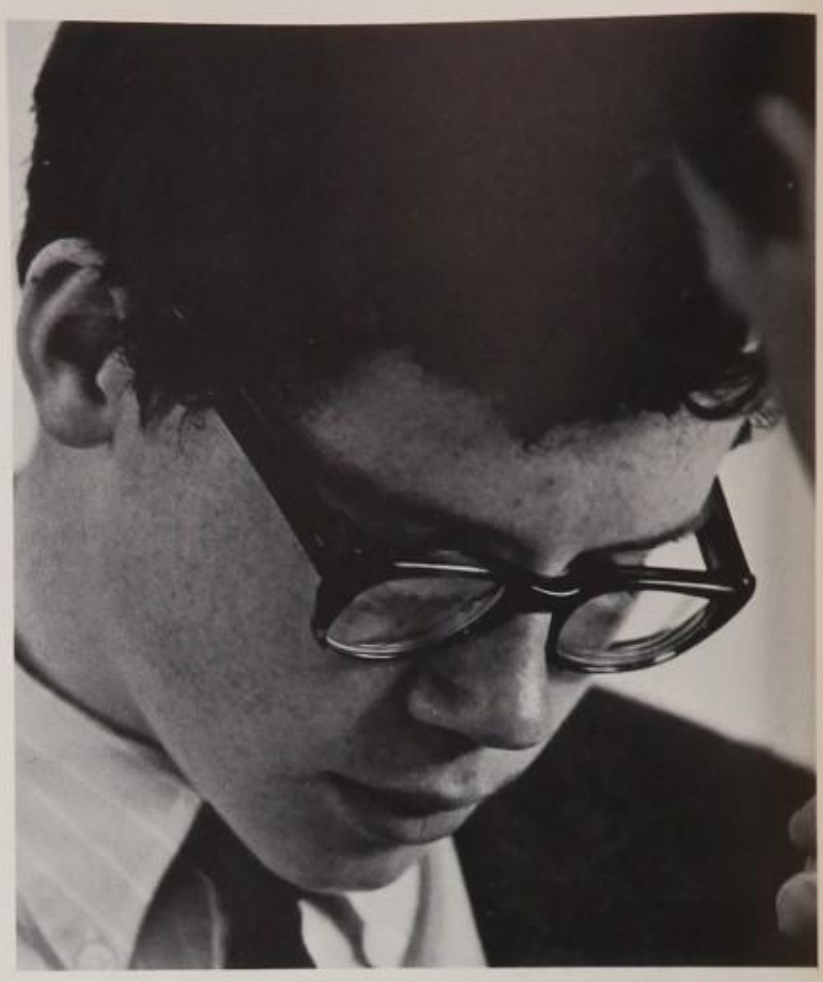
Mr. Businessman, known for his editorship, spectacularly unsuccessful political campaign, and all-around "good-guyedness."

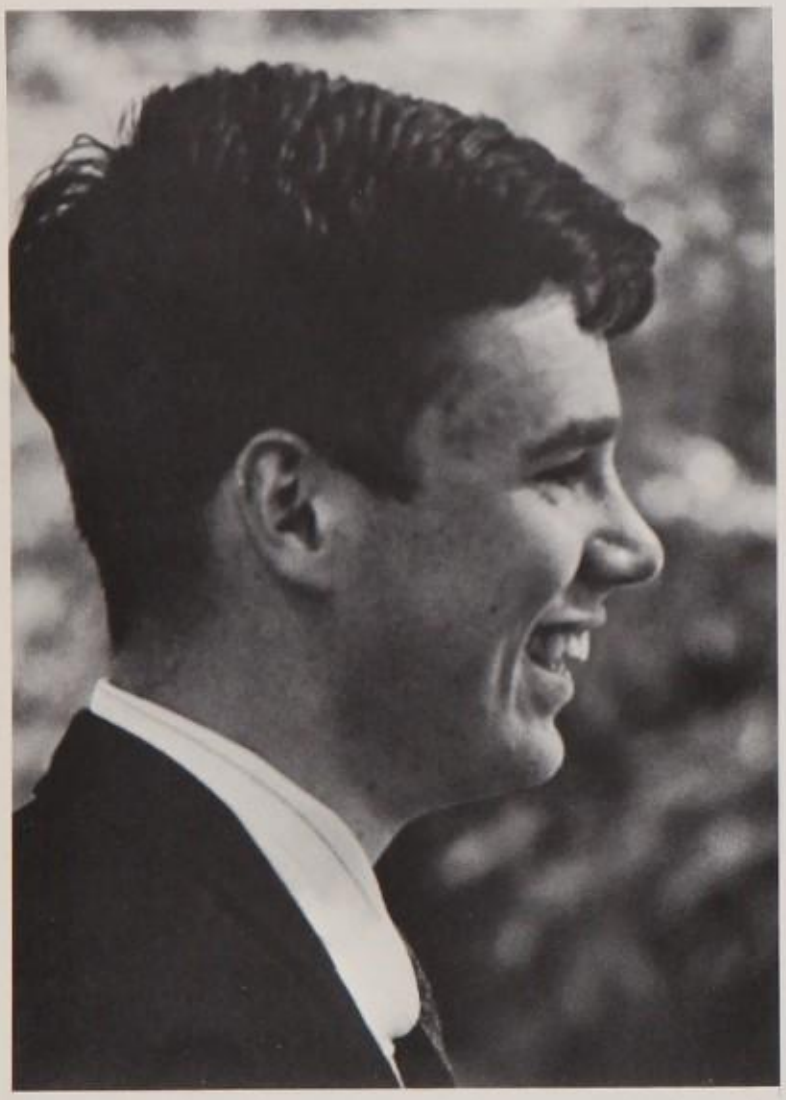
MAURICE SWANSON

Our own high performance, lubricated, cam shaft, fan belt, chain drive, manifold vacuumized, Maury.

MARK THORNTON

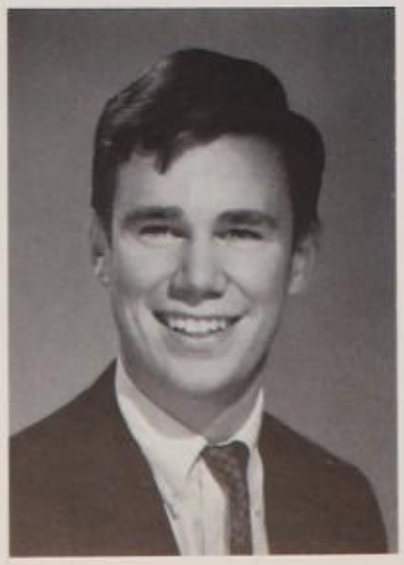
"Thunder," one of the few "Authorized Computer Operators" . . . a rare breed.





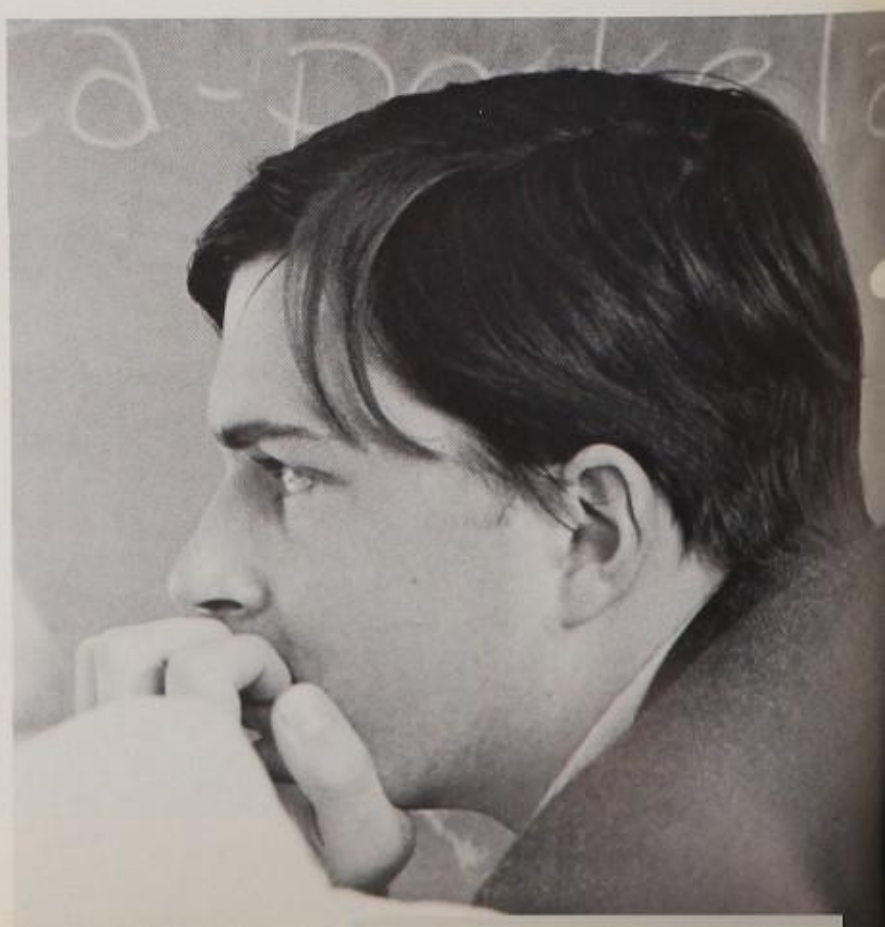
PAUL WALSH

Vincent van Walsh (BLAM, ZOWIE) able to capture the true spirit of a light bulb.



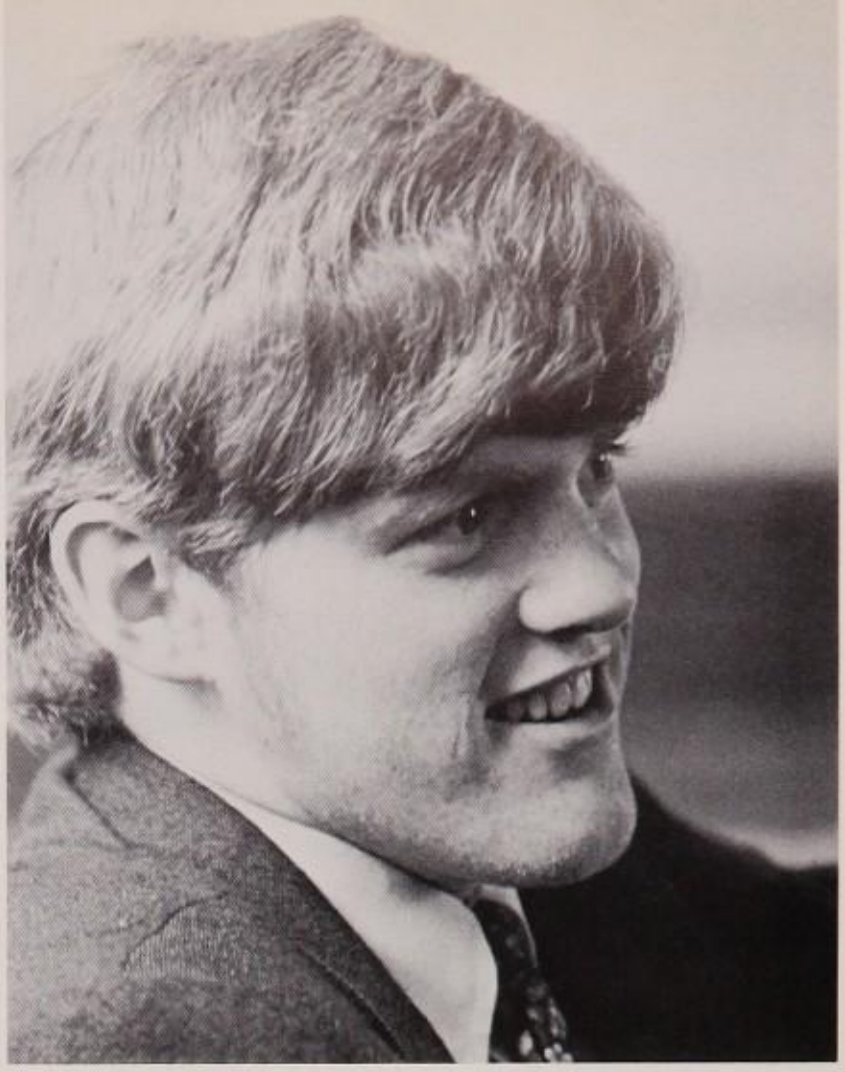
GARDINER VINNEDGE

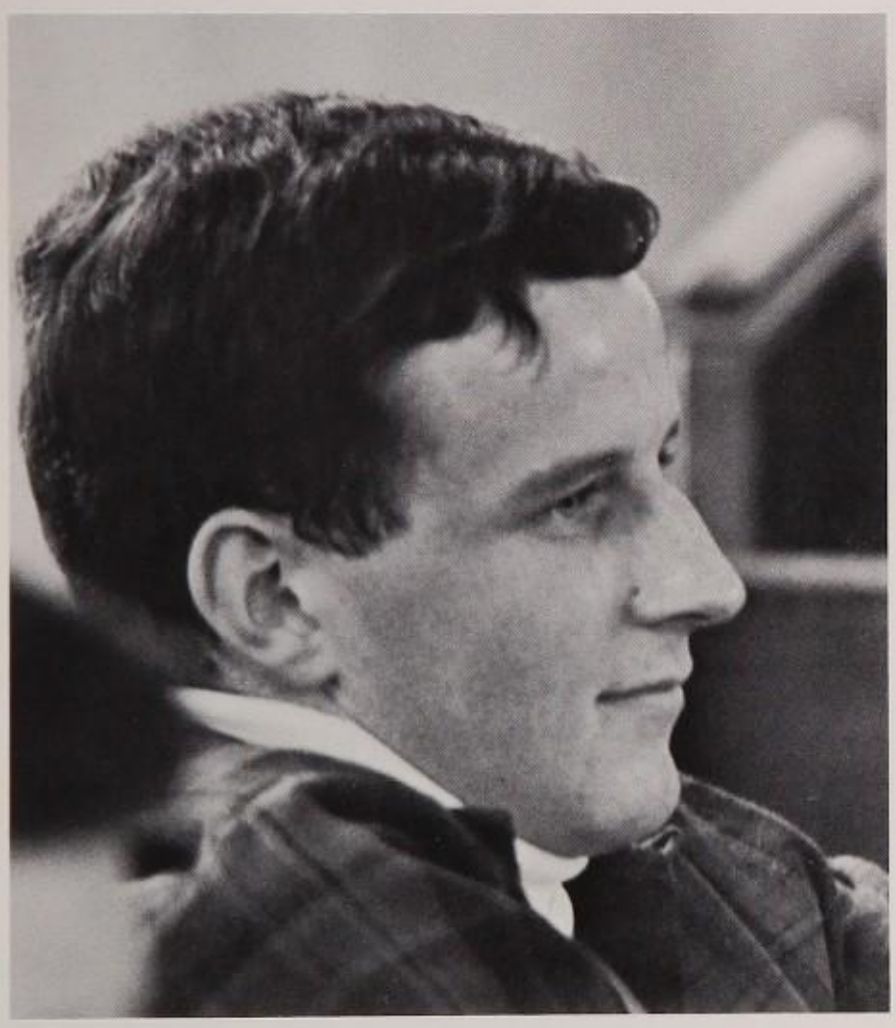
North Bend's Mr. Crisis, always looking for a good scandal.



LARRY WALTERS

Bothell's golf pro, following in the divots of Jack Nicklaus, known for his red hair and questionable limericks.



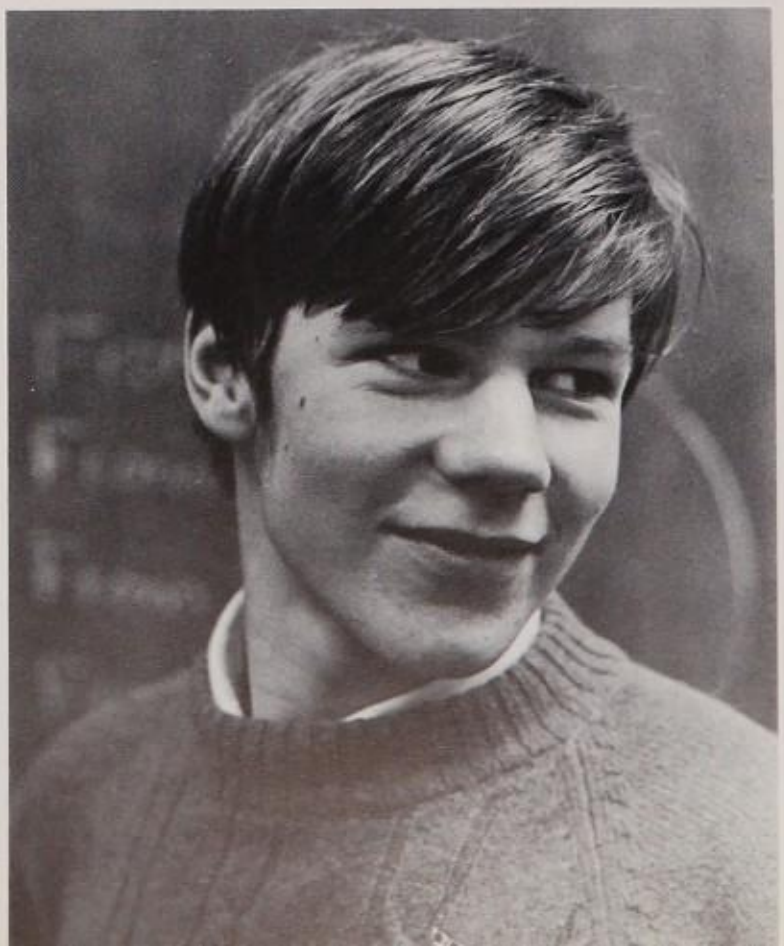


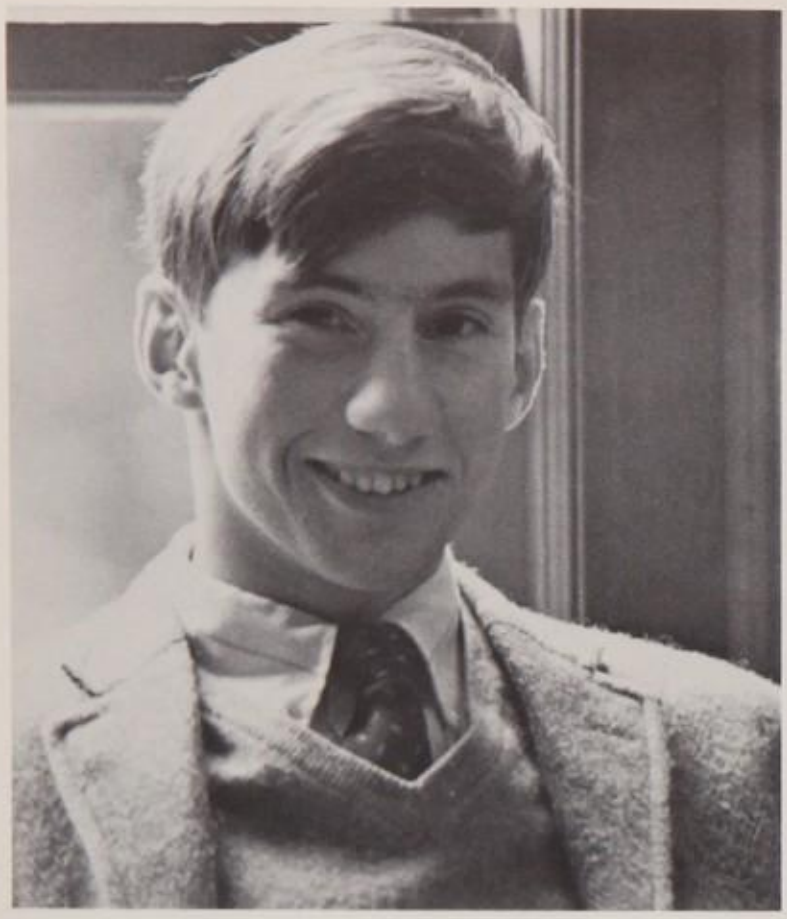
DAVID WARREN

The hiking mathematician who calculates the orbits of planets in his spare moments.

BART WATSON

The skiing world traveller who found Norway far more enticing than Capitol Hill.





CRAIG WEBSTER

"Kahuna" Craig, Numidian devotee, always ready to add a serious note to Glee Club.

JAMES WEDGWOOD

Member of the Wedgwood Dynasty which has controlled the math department since Mr. Bleakney can remember.
